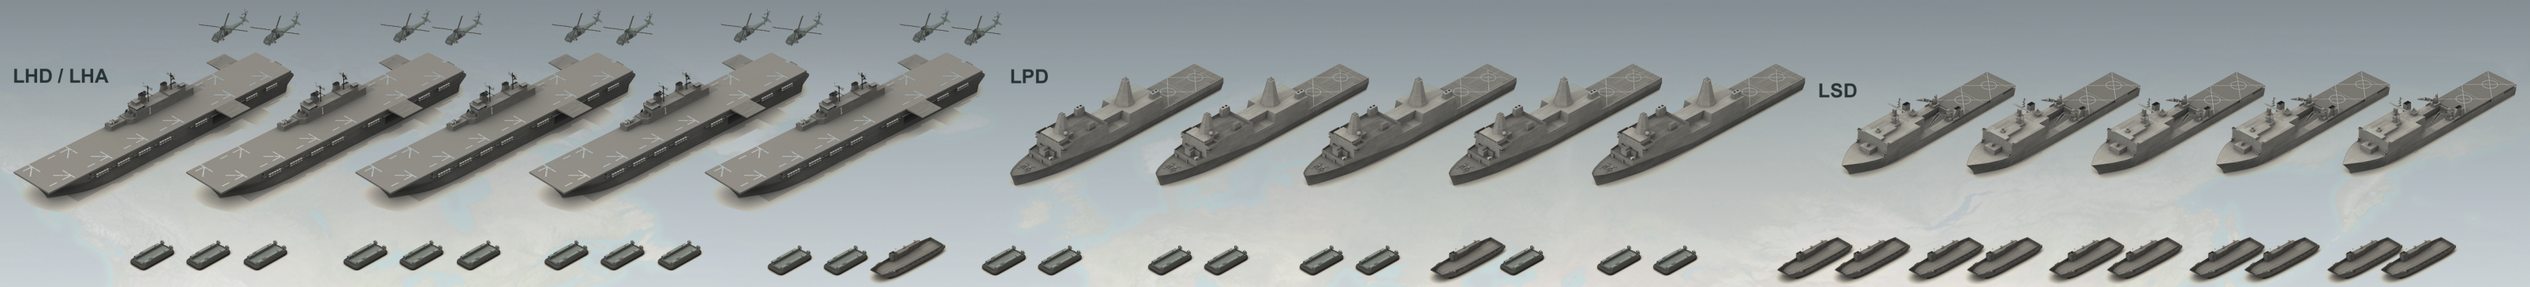
Amphibious Task Force / Marine Expeditionary Brigade

Scalable command and control, flexible and lethal across the spectrum of conflict, the MEB is immediately able to conduct forcible entry or sustained combat operations, robust combat service support, joint force enabling and/ or independent operations.



Amphibious Ship and Connector Characteristics

	Troops	Vehicles (SqFt)	Cargo (CuFt)	Aircraft (MH-60 Eq)	JP-5 (Gal)	LCAC spots (#)
LHD	1,697	17,674	125,000	81.15	478,872	3
LHA 6	1,697	10,328	160,000	87.15	1,3000,000	0
LPD 17	698	20,880	34,000	8.91	318,308	2
LSD 41	403	11,595	5,100	0	52,160	4
LSD 49	406	16,326	50,700	0	53,230	2
LCAC	15 (cabin) plus 72 (PTM)	1809	0	0	0	N/A
LCU	400	1850	0	0	0	N/A

Baseline MEB (w/NSE) Requirement

	Troops	Vehicle (SqFt)	Cargo (CuFt)	Aircraft (MH-60 eq.)	JP5 (Gal)	LCAC (#)
MEB	10,838	446,071	906,232	447.39	6,925,454	-
Navy Support Element	1,333	19,173	24,586	14	1,420,011	27
Total	12,171	465,244	930,818	461.39	8,345,465	27

Flexible amphibious capabilities Capable of Operating Across the Spectrum of Operations

HQMC, CD&I, Seabasing Integration Division, Expeditionary Ships Capabilities Branch (703) 784-6038